OBITUARY

1949

JOHN WESLEY BENN

On Wednesday, October 27th, in Kingston General Hospital, John Wesley Benn, son of Mrs. Gertrude Benn, Marlbank, and the late Albert Benn, passed peacefully away at the early age of 32 years. The deceased had been in failing health for the past year, but his condition did not seem serious until about three months ago, when he was removed to the hospital. All that medical care and loving hands could do was done but all to no avail.

The funeral was held on Friday afternoon from his late home, to the United Church, where the service was in charge of the Rev. Throop, who visited him at home and in the hospital and delivered a very comforting message to the bereaved family. The choir rendered 'Will the Circle be Unbroken,' by request. Following the service the cortege followed the remains to the Kimmett Cemetery, where interment was made. The floral tributes were many and beautiful, showing the esteem in which he was held by his many friends, who regret his passing.

Deceased is survived by his sorrowing mother, Mrs. G. Benn, four brothers, Lyal, of Kingston; Earl of McGee, Sask., Clossen and Borden, of Toronto, and three sisters, Mrs. Wilbur Bush, Toronto, Mrs. Dave Garrick, of Kingston, and Mrs. Dale Claussen, of Marlbank. The funeral was conducted under the L. O. L. of which the deceased was a member, and the pall-bearers and flower-bearers were brother Orangemen: Vimy York, Archie Mouck, Jimmy Fraser, Percy Jarmin, Manley and Morley Meeks.

The sympathy of the community goes out to the bereaved family in their sorrow.

MRS. STANLEY BENN

Word has been received at Enterprise of the death of Mrs. Stanley Benn of Gibson's Landing, BC. She had been in failing health for some time, but was able to go to Vancouver, expecting to spend the winter with her son, Percy, and wife. On Dec. 18th she suffered a heart attack and passed away almost immediately.

Mrs. Benn before her marriage was Emily E. Perry of Colebrook, eldest daughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. William L. Perry. Many years ago Mr. and Mrs. Benn went to the West, settling in British Columbia. Jan 18 1952

Surviving besides her son, Percy, in Vancouver, are three daughters, Mrs. T. H. A. Ramsay (Coral), of Tappero, BC, Mrs. Arthur Davies (Madelene), of Biggar, Sask., and Mrs. Elmer Ford of Gaylord, Michigan; two sisters, Mrs. William Wilson and Mrs. Thomas Wilson, both of the Enterprise district. Her husband and one son, Ted, predeceased her about five years ago.

Her funeral service was conducted in the United Church at Gibson's Landing, by her pastor, Rev. Bevin, with interment in the family plot in Sea View Cemetery.

The Committee was and, on motion, was

1. That the Committee be property of Mrs. Caroline W. Chay man in the Township of Kaladar, on November 3rd, 1948, as to its suitability for a County Forest.

2. That the Zone Forester be requested to inspect the property of Mr. Fred Reid in the Fifth Concession of the Township of Ernesttown as to its suitability for reforestation.

3. That a grant of ten dollars be made to the Zone Forester, W. E.
Edwards, for the purchase of 25
copies of the book Practical Woodlot Management at .40 cents per copy.
These books to be distributed to the members of the County Council and the balance to be used to supply schools taking part in the Forestry Education Programme.

4. Your Chairman took a trip over the Moira Watershed on invitation from Moira Authority, also, a trip sponsored by the Ontario Department of Post War Planning and Development led by A. H. Richardson, Chief Conservation Engineer for Ontario to the Muckingum Watershed; that these trips might be of use in our work in Ontario.

5. We recommend the purchase of 150 acres in the Township of Kaladar for the sum of $500.00 for reforestation and a by-law be prepared for the purchase of the Kaladar property. Examined a property in the Township of Ernesttown, but found it unsuitable. The Warden, Chairman and Solicitor be a committee to close the deal.

6. That we recommend the following committee services be paid: — Messrs. Purcell, 2 days, 32 miles;
Vine, 2 days, 84 miles; Creighton,
2 days, 20 miles; Johnston, 2 days,
42 miles; York, 2 days, 34 miles;
Jackson, 2 days, 10 miles.

On motion of Reeves Perry and Purcell the committee services for the members of the Joint Board for Allowances and Pensions for 1948, be paid by order on the Treasurer by the Warden and Clerk, after the final Board meeting in 1948. The

CELEBRATING their golden wedding anniversary in Sydenham on Tuesday next, will be Mr. and Mrs. H. M. (Bert) McRory. Both come from families whose residence in this area goes back well over 100 years. The inserted photograph shows the couple at the time of their wedding on Aug. 29, 1900. Lt.-Col. C. A. McRory, one of their four children, was responsible for the remarkable effect achieved in the above photograph.

A SYDENHAM COUPLE will celebrate their golden wedding anniversary on Tuesday next.

They are Mr. and Mrs. H. M. (Bert) McRory, who were married 50 years ago in Moscow on Aug. 29. The celebration will be held in their Sydenham residence and they expect many relatives and friends to attend.

Both Mr. and Mrs. McRory come from families long known in this area. Mr. McRory's grandparents on his father's side, Abraham Wood and Permelia McGuinness, were United Empire Loyalists and were married on Oct. 12, 1829 in Kingston. His grandparents on his mother's side were Matthew McRory and Marian Finley, also married in Kingston on March 26, 1826. His immediate parents, John McRory and Miriam Wood, were married in Loughboro Dec. 24, 1856.

Mrs. McRory, formerly Ola Benn, is the daughter of Stover Benn and Sarah Switzer, lifetime residents of the Moscow district. Her grandparents on both sides were also from the Moscow area.

Attending the celebration will be the couple's four children, Mrs. J. E. Brink, Brockville, Lt.-Col. C. A. McRory, Canadian Army HQ, Ottawa, Mrs. A. R. C. McGreer, Kingston, and Mrs. George Hulme, Toronto.

MRS. J. K. GRANT, Tupper Lake, NY, and Miss Catherine Asselstine, Windsor, two of the bridesmaids at their wedding, will also be on hand to congratulate the couple. Mrs. Grant is Mr. McRory's sister and Miss Asselstine is a cousin of Mrs. McRory. Another sister of Mr. McRory, Mrs. Jettie Buck, 75 Nelson street, Kingston, will also attend.

Mr. McRory was a farmer in the Sydenham district all his life until his retirement five years ago. A brother, Frank McRory, also of the Sydenham district, and his wife, the former Mary Lawson, their diamond jubilee last year.

A crowd of 9,707 saw Poholsky ack up his 18th victory against our losses since joining the Wings n mid-May. He also registered his 0th complete game.

Pitcher Kent Peterson won and

14-Year-Old UK Jockey Doing Well

By Alan Harvey
LONDON — (CP) — Britain's youngest jockey, 14-year-old Les-Lester Piggott, was born to the saddle.

His father and grandfather were jockeys and his mother twice won the only British race open to women riders.

"There was no question of him ever being anything else but a jockey," Piggott, sr., says of the 84-pound teen-age star who rides successfully against established veterans such as 45-year-old Gordon Richards and 42-year-old Charlie Smirke.

Lester won his first race at 12 years of age and came home a winner on The Case, a 10-to-1 shot. In the two years since then he's ridden more than 25 winners, although because of his light weight he often draws horses that have little chance on form.

Because he is so light, he sometimes put up as much as 28 pounds of "dead" weight on horses slated to carry 112 pounds, which is about the average on British tracks.

A rider's life is a hard one, but most schoolboys envy Piggott because he doesn't go to school. Instead, he takes private lessons at home.

He also studies from charts. His father says he knows pretty well what chance his horse has in every race by studying its form and breeding.

AN AMATEUR jockey, Edward Underdown, has been "warned off" the course for three months—but there's no stain on his record.

Besides being a race rider, Underdown also is a successful movie actor. When he signed a contract to play in one picture, "Man Detained," he had to accept a clause saying he wouldn't ride for three months.

An insurance company insisted on the provision. It was afraid a fall might hold up production.

One of Britain's best-known owners, Miss Dorothy Paget, is at odds with another trainer. Henri Jelliss, Newmarket trainer and jockey, has asked her to find a new man to look after 12 horses he trained for her.

"I find it quite hopeless to go on with the 12 horses I have, so I have decided to finish," Jelliss told reporters. Miss Paget declined comment.

Jelliss became chief trainer for Miss Paget in 1947 after Walter Nightingall decided to sever his

Frink and Benn Families Gather

Event at Varty Lake—Salvation Army Event at Odessa Aug 13, 1932

Odessa — An enjoyable event took place at the lovely grounds adjacent to Varty Lake, when members of the Frink and Benn families gathered. The day was an ideal one and there were over fifty present.

For the past week or two, Mrs. Tagg of Rochester, a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Frink of this village, accompanied by Mr. Tagg and family, also Mr. and Mrs. Hinden and Mr. and Mrs. Barber, have been holidaying at the lake, and while here the idea of holding a re-union was formulated, and it was a splendid success in every way.

Of six children born to Mr. and Mrs. Frink, five were present, including families, and they were Mrs. Tagg of Rochester, Mrs. Shea of Kingston, Mrs. Blake Gilbert of Napanee, Dwight Frink of Odessa, and Mearl Frink of the McGinnis-O'Connor Construction Company. A daughter, Mrs. Klickner of Rochester was unable to be present. Mrs. Fred Snider of Camden East, and Wesley of the Belleville police force, sister and brother respectively of Mr. Frink, also attended.

Mr. Frink is a son of the late Mr. and Mrs. Robert Frink and he was born in North Fredericksburg. Of a family of seven, five are living, and a sister, Mrs. Elfield of Hamilton, and a brother, Edward of Oshawa, were unable to attend. Mrs. Frink was before her marriage Miss Eurette Benn, a daughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. Stover Benn of Moscow. Four children were born to Mr. and Mrs. Benn, three of whom are living. All were present, namely, Mrs. Frink, Mrs. McQuarrie of Sydenham and Wellington Benn of Varty Lake.

Guests were present from Odessa, Rochester, Kingston and Belleville. Tables were arranged for the dinner and the event was certainly a very enjoyable one. It is hoped that another similar function will take place next summer.

Deaths and Funerals

IRA L. BENN 1956

Ira Leslie Benn, 79, of Long Lake, died at his home, Jan. 10 following a lengthy illness.

Born in Olden Township, he was a son of the late Mr. and Mrs. Ira W. Benn. In his youth he had considerable experience in lumbering and river-driving, which later proved an asset in his geological work.

Mr. Benn discovered the Long Lake zinc mine. He studied mineralogy at Queen's University and went on the first official government mineral survey of northern Ontario and Quebec in association with Dr. Willet Miller and Dr. William Goodwin who were so prominent in the opening of the Cobalt mining district.

In the early nineteen hundreds, following his return from the north, he planned and built the first telephone line, which consisted of some 50 miles, extending to Arden, Sharbot Lake, Verona and Wagarville. It was known as the Long Lake Rural Telephone Line, one of his greatest contributions to the community.

Civil Defence Needed Now, Says Jolliffe

TORONTO — (CP) — E. B. Jolliffe, leader of the CCF opposition in the Ontario Legislature, last night appealed to the Ontario Government to start at once to lead and finance a civil defence program for the province.

He said in a "provincial affairs" free-time broadcast over a CBC Ontario network that, by the time the legislature opens Feb. 1, the Ontario Government "should be ready to announce its plans to go ahead with them at once."

He urged the newspapers of Ontario to demand "an immediate end to lethargy" on civil defence, asked Ontario legislature members to insist that the gov-

Surviving are his wife, Jennie Deborah; two daughters, Mrs. Mac (Lyla) Best, Fingal, and Theda, registered nurse on the staff at Kingston General Hospital; two sons, Roy at home, and Arland, civil engineer at Toronto; also four grandchildren, Nicole, Katherine, Michael, and Robert Best of Fingal. He was predeceased by one son, Clifford Leslie.

The funeral was held at Long Lake United Church, the service being conducted by the student minister, William Burgess. The pall-bearers were G. M. Drew, O. D. Cronk, Percy Cronk, Wendell Smith, Herschel Stinson, and Donald Stinson. Many beautiful floral tributes were received and relatives attended from Fingal, Toronto, Kingston, Sydehham, Moscow and surrounding district. The interment was at Parham Cemetery.

Greenberg Does It Again

By The Canadian Press

LEAVE IT to Hank Greenberg to come up each spring with the top slugger of the minor leagues. Greenberg, one of the American League's greatest sluggers, succeeded Bill Veck as boss of the Indians at the end of the 1949 season. The Tribe's first spring training drill under Greenberg featured the presence of big Luke Easter, who had pulled Pacific Coast League pitchers the previous summer. Easter proceeded to whack big league chuckers in somewhat similar fashion.

Now comes another minor league fence-buster to the Indians' spring training camp at Tucson, Ariz. He is Harry Simp-
